Standard News

Mr. and Mrs. Thordval Rasmussen and Thyle returned to Standard on Monday from Long Beach, California, where they have spent the past two years. They many friends welcome them back to Alberta again.

The many friends of Mrs. Wesley Peterson will regret to learn that it was necessary for her to be removed to Calgary, where she is in the hospital suffering from influenza pneumonia.

The Women's Institute held a very successful tea on Saturday afternoon, March 14th, in Webb's Banner Hotel. Nearly everyone in Standard and the community parrot of the district refreshments served by members of the Institute. The receipts for the afternoon totalled about $14.00. Mr. and Mrs. Webb are to be complimented on the splendid spirit they show in so kindly donating the use of their hotel for every good cause.

The Standard Tennis Club held their first meeting for this season on Tuesday, March 18th, at the home of Mrs. F. D. Knowlton. The officers for the coming year were elected as follows: President, Mr. H. A. M. Graham; Vice-President, Mr. F. D. Knowlton; Secretary, Mr. C. Noble. No committees were appointed; it was decided to wait until after the membership drive before appointing the committees. Before the meeting closed there was a discussion about the work on the courts for this season. Mr. Noble moved a vote of thanks to the executive of the past year for their untiring efforts to make the Tennis Club a success, and Mr. Knowlton, retiring president, responded on behalf of the executive. There will be several improvements on the courts this year and is the desire of the club to have many of the citizens of Standard playing tennis this season, and they ask that anyone interested, or anyone wishing to join, to communicate with either Mr. Graham or Mr. Noble. The membership fees this year are considerably lower than last year, being $1.00 for ladies, and 2.00 for gentlemen. The club is assured that everyone will give their support to such a good, clean sport as tennis.

The first car of "made in Alberta gasoline" to reach Standard, was announced at the local agency of the Imperial Oil Limited, on Thursday afternoon. Motorists who have been watching with interest the construction of the immense refinery plant at Calgary will now have an opportunity to test out its product. The gasoline is said to be a very high grade.

A painful accident occurred here on Wednesday, when Miss Benita Malt was unfortunate in breaking her arm while cranking a car. Benita's friends will regret to learn of her misfortune. Mr. Wesley Peterson returned from Calgary on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Arnhem and son, returned from Calgary on Wednesday.

Mr. F. McDonald returned to Standard on Monday after spending the winter at several Alberta points. We are glad to see Mr. Mac back again.

Friends of Miss Rosella Dryden will be pleased to learn that she has fully recovered from her recent operation, and has resumed her studies at St. Joseph's Academy, Adrian, Michigan. The dance held here on Friday, March 21st, under the auspices of the Standard Tennis Club, was fairly well attended, considering the disagreeable weather of that evening. There were a number present from Rosedale and Chancellor. Everyone reports a good time and excellent music, which was provided by the Canadian symphonized Orchestra. Supper was served at Webb's and Peterson's.

Mr. Victor Peterson and son, Nels, who have spent the winter in Denmark, arrived in Calgary on Saturday, March 22nd. Mrs. Peterson met them in Calgary.

The particulars of the play put on by the Standard Danish Dramatic Society will appear next week. This successful venture was an encouragement that the Society have rented a hall in Calgary for Tuesday evening, March 25th, and will put on their play in the city that evening. Who says Standard is not on the map?

Louie On, our popular local restaurant proprietor received a car load of ice last week.

Wonder who plays Ma Jonez in Standard?

Mrs. F. S. Knowlton returned home last week. She was accompanied by Mrs. Dergi Dushman.

SEED GRAIN GOING FAST

The Provincial Government Seed Grain Cleaning and Marketing Plant has disposed in date of more than 20,000 bushels of seed, which is in excess of the amount it was expected would be marketed this season, and compares with 16,500 bushels marketed during the season of 1922-23. A great deal of seed is going out to farmers in the province, as well as to points abroad.

Why Ford Predominates

Simplicity of Operation

The Ford is remarkably easy to operate. Gear shifting is done automatically by the feet. The driver's hands are always on the wheel. His eyes are always on the road. He can watch traffic constantly.

There is no possibility of failure to accomplish a gear shift. Ford gears being of the planetary type are always in mesh and every shift is positive and unflinching.

The Ford is very easy to steer and responds to the slightest movement of the wheel. It will turn in a circle with a radius of nineteen feet three inches.

The short Ford wheelbase is a boon in congested traffic. It gives easy manipulation everywhere, and enables you to park in crowded sections where a big car is handicapped.

WHAT IS COOPERATION

Our readers will note in this issue a thoughtful article on "Co-operation" from the pen of Mr. Hugh Miller, of Irtica.

Success has attended co-op efforts in the distribution and sale of products raised by the farmer, and it effected notable savings when properly conducted. The greatest success has been in the case of the fruit growers of the Western States, who have created new markets for their products by extended advertising campaigns. The pooling of grain is a comparatively new idea, but it is certain to bring better returns to the farmer than the haphazard methods of the past.

On the other hand, the experiments in retailing goods through co-operatives in Canada and the United States have very largely been abortive, and the costs of selling have been higher than in the case of the ordinary retail system.

The United Farmers of Ontario recently disposed of their retail stores and pocketed a loss of several hundred thousand dollars. Co-operative experiments at points in the district have also ended in failure. Where retail co-operation has achieved more success, as in industrial centres, where population is thickly settled, and wages come in regularly.

The country merchant, as the article avers, performs numerous services for the people of his district for which he receives little or nothing in return. He takes big chances of failure, and small chances of big profits. He is usually to be found supporting all movements for the good of the community, and as long as he gives service at competitive prices, and runs his business on up-to-date lines, should be favored with all the business that the people can give him. The manager of a co-operative store is usually in the business for the salary he gets, and when that fails he is finished with the district.

At the same time, many of the country merchant's failures to get business that he should properly get are the result of want of sludge of up-to-date retailing methods. The store-keeper who is worth his salt will comb his trade publications for the latest ideas, and apply them to his business. The merchant who keeps in touch with the people of his district, gives prices and quality, and let the people know that he deals so, will make a success of his business, and gain the respect of his customers at the same time. Of course, crop failures and fire losses sometimes entail failure, but the majority of failures are due to incompetence. The pull exerted by mail order and city houses can be counterbalanced by the same methods which have made the business for those houses.

NEW PIG CLUBS

A line new boys and girls pig club has been organized at Vegreville by P. H. Newcombe, District Agent-turist. The new club has applications for membership totalling 25. Other pig districts in the same territory are planning to organize clubs.

construction of the Memorial Hall, the curling and skating rink, and other schemes, and it had not entailed hardship.

Baseball

The baseball situation was dealt with by Messrs. Van Tighem and Leoni, and almost all present promised to attend a meeting of the Baseball Club to be held next Monday, March 31st.

Wednesday Half Holiday

The question of Wednesday half-holiday came up in connection with baseball. It was said that the storekeepers get little opportunity for sport. Calgary storekeepers, and even Timothy Eaton, closed up on Wednesday, but the poor country merchant was denied the opportunity. All the farmers present expressed themselves in favor of a half holiday by a standing vote. Mr. Cammard said that so long as a farmer could get supplies in an emergency he had no objection to a half-holiday once a week for the townspeople.

The business men present expressed themselves to be in favor of a half-holiday, and the president pointed out that if they wanted a half-holiday it was up to them to agree among themselves and get it.

The Stamped

The Stamped then came up for discussion, but as the hour was getting late it was agreed to defer discussion on this to a meeting to be held on Wednesday evening.

The last part of the proceedings was an entertaining talk by Frank Miller, retailing his experience in collecting for the Stamped last summer.

During the evening a nice lunch was served by the entertainment committee. Songs were given by Mrs. Tudor and J. G. Robinson provided the accompaniment for several popular choruses.

Altogether the meeting was a highly successful one, and will result in considerable good for the town.

ALBERTA'S EDUCATIONAL FACILITIES

The scope of activities of the Dept. of Education in the Province of Alberta attain astonishing magnitudes to the enquirer. An investment of nearly fifteen million dollars; the operation of twenty-nine hundred and ninety-five schools containing 100,000 pupils, and the employment of 60,000 teachers. The expenditure of more than 12,000,000 in capital account, salaries, upkeep, etc. in 1922.

The university was placed in class-club has been organized at Vegreville by P. H. Newcombe, District Agent-turist. The new club has applications for membership totalling 25. Other pig districts in the same territory are planning to organize clubs.

The capital investment in the University is over four million and the amount voted for its upkeep in 1922 was $651,000.00.

Rockyford Locals

Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Garden are rejoicing in the birth of a son at Calgary last week.

Mr. Bert Erswell paid a business visit to the city Tuesday.

Local radio fans were out in full force Saturday and Tuesday for the hockey results.

It's good weather to be thinking baseball. The club has a deficit from last year, and this should be taken care of, and the boys given a clean start for 1924.

The Nightingale players pleased their audience at Rockyford last Wednesday and a request was made for their return to our fair town.

Will Rockyford have beer? When, where, and what price, are the questions agitating some of our citizens at present. This is an irrigation district, and the argument is that this should ensure a beer.

Fred Gibson has several new car prospects for this spring.

Some land changes are reported this spring. The Mennonite Colony are reported to be adding somewhat to their holdings.

Local pool farmers are exhibiting their tie for bushel wheat checks and taking it as an earnest of good things in the future.

Rockyford Masons will initiate their wives and lady friends into the mysteries of the fourth degree on Friday of this week, and a pleasant evening will be spent in music, banquet, and dancing.

Notes are somewhat scarce in this column this week, as part of the items did not get through for publication.

Baintree Sidelights

Nope, we ain't going to South America with the Togo bunch. Our mixed blood demands excitement, and, as a respected member of the local school board, we can find all the trouble we are able to handle right in this little old burg by the Serviceberry.

Mrs. Tom Glendinning arrived back home on Monday, after visiting a sick relative in Manitoba.

Mrs. Wm. Dallas, with Mrs. H. G. Troth, spent last Monday in Calgary.

Three hundred and thirty people claimed the thirty cents we found at the C. N. depot. Didn't know there were so many honest people in the world, so we'll pay them all.

Eggs are so cheap at the present prices that we are feeding them to our hens in order to make them lay more.

He that repenteth of sin is as one without sin. This old Arabian proverb, like many more of the same kind, only covers half of the truth. Your heavenly father, be He God, Mahomed, or Shiva, will forgive all your sins; but what about your friends? How about yourself, old bean? Do a stretch in the pen for something that many of your friends have done and got away with, and see what will happen. The fellow that need to drink your whiskey, and call you a good scout, will avoid you as they would a plague. When you overindulge in food, wine, or tobacco, you are committing a sin on your own body. Xi in the next world will you pay for those things, but right in the old spin patch where you planted your scabby seed, will you harvest the same kind of crop. Plus the straight turner you can, follow and when you come to the end of your last lap you won't care whether the world has been going round by the power of a windmill or revolving on the axle of a Ford coupe, so there you are, boys, eat, drink, and be merry if you will, but on the day of reckoning you will learn that the booming comes fastest to the one who throve it hardest.

Last night we have been celebrating our birthday, let us tell you about the team we bought at the Smith sale. He, with the blind eye, we have called Johnny Walker, because, like his name-sake, he is one hundred years old and still going strong. His cousin in harness has been named Clover Blossom on account of her fondness for hay stacks. As we become more intimately acquainted, they will undoubtedly acquire more familiar titles.

A young married lady of our acquaintance desires to know how to resist the affections of her husband. Answer: Jane, old dear, put him on a diet of apple pie and angel food, and his love will never waver.

A correspondent from Ontario, who has a great admiration for our wisdom, wishes to know how to procure when one of his neighbors smiles him on the cheek. The following reply is based on the experience of a long and varied career. Johnathan, old boy, if your smiler is larger than you, bite your tongue twice, count twenty, then go home and milk the cows. All things being about equal, measure your distance carefully, and with your good right, plant your weight on the point of his chin where the blue is showing. If this is not enough, give him a left hook on the breadbasket, and when you get him going, never stop until he has gone to sleep. We should advise you to turn the other cheek, but it is always well to cook the hash on the spit, for just as sure as Adam ate our apples, your friend will continue to be playful as long as he can get away with it. Yes, sure, it pays to keep your horns sharpened in this battle old world, not only for self protection, but also to keep the other fellow in the path of duty. Next please.

Although Mr. and Mrs. John Garden do not live in our midst, we feel that they are part of our lives, and therefore feel privileged to extend to them the congratulations of our entire district on the arrival of a baby boy.

Mrs. Mary Hedder is visiting her sister, Mrs. T. Longbottom, and is busy renewing old friendships.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Jacobs, Miss Mae Longbottom with brother Sam, and I. T. Blake took in the St. Patrick's dance at Strathmore, and had a splendid time.

Just as this is being mailed for publication, one of those who had claimed the thirty cents came along and demanded interest for the time the money was in our possession. What would you do if you were Scotch? Yes, we did it.

ST. PATRICK'S DANCE

The above dance was held in the school house on March 15, and was decidedly the event of the social season. The mayor, in his official capacity, opened the programme with an Irish jig. To show their appreciation a number of the ladies presented him with a wreath of shamrock, in full bloom. Ed. Lyons, Jr., in the role of dancing master displayed to an admiring audience all the wiggles and wiggles of his profession.

Vic, Chapman and E. J. Lyons seen in the garb of Caruso and John McCormack, showed their musical abilities by keeping faithful watch over the orchestra of the music box. Billy McMillan, disguised as a retired school trustee, displayed the happiest face we have seen in years. Tom Glendinning, who wore the uniform of the wandering minstrel, was very fine. During the evening he brought out his old harp, and made the welkin ring with the strains of the Irish waltz—Woman, and Stop Your Ticking Clock.

To pass over Harry Troth would be to do Ireland a great injustice. H. G. was dressed as a general of the Republican army, and early in the evening made a pathetic appeal for funds to enable the U.F.W.A. to carry on the fight for Home Rule. Great applause and a shower of ten dollar bills followed the speech, and the merchant of Baintree (whom we think was our old friend Mary) had to get a mail bag to hold the money. As we haven't been properly introduced to the other people on the floor, etiquette forbids us describing the many beautiful ones who were present. After a splendid lunch served by the members of the U.F.W.A., everybody went home singing "Oh, What a Time We Had!"

At the two dances held in Strathmore during last week, the presence of Mr. "Wick" Ford and his side-tronbone was much enjoyed. Mr. Ford has been for several seasons a member of the famous Sousa's Band, and expects to return this summer.

With regard to the case reported last week, we are asked to state that a charge against E. J. Kourou, of pointing a gun at E. Reynolds, was withdrawn. The value of the Standard as an advertising medium is being increasingly recognized by several of the large manufacturers of Canada, and we have recently concluded contracts with prominent soapmakers, motor car manufacturers, etc., for advertising of their products. These concerns do not advertise for essential reasons, but because they have found that advertising in well-conducted newspapers of adequate circulation brings returns. This belief can be seen by retail merchant or business man affords to neglect to employ the methods which have brought success to these big businesses.

Mr. Robert Reid is opening a general store at Danahill, close to Nightingale, where the C.N. and C.P. railways cross. The building was erected by Mr. S. H. Hird, and was opened this week. Rosebud Notes

We are glad to announce that Rosebud has arrived home from the Drumheller hospital, and is feeling fine.

There will be a meeting of the Ladies Aid, of Rosebud United Church, on Saturday afternoon next, to be held in the Church. All the members are requested to be present as the Aid has considerable business to attend to, as well as plans for the future. Lunch will be served.

One of the most interesting events which has taken place in Rosebud was the humorous sketch put on by the Ladies Aid, in aid of the Church, entitled "Aunt Jerusha's Quilt Party".

The ladies of the church and the board of Managers were well represented on the stage, and were ably assisted by quite a number of talented young people of the district. Judging from the comments which have been heard on all sides, the evening was thoroughly enjoyed. There was a splendid attendance, the Church being packed to capacity and the financial returns were most encouraging to the men and women who devoted their time and energy to making the affair a success. The latter part of the evening took the form of a box social. The boxes were beautiful and brought good prices, and a lively interest was taken as they were auctioned to the highest bidder by the genial auctioneer, Squire Brunner.

A dance is being held March 28th, in the Rosebud School house, to raise money for equipment for a tennis court and basket ball outfit, etc. for the use of the pupils. The teachers of the school are promoting this dance and it is to be hoped that every assistance is given them by the people of Rosebud district. Cards will be played as well, and every effort is being made to see that all those who attend have a good time. Lunch will be provided by the ladies.

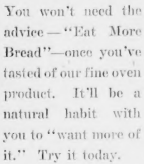

The splendid address given by Mr. W. J. Elliott, Supt. of the Live Stock Dept. of the U.S.G.C., Calgary, in the basement of the Church at Rosebud, proved very interesting and instructive to the numerous farmers who were in attendance. Mr. Elliott's subject was "Co-operative Shipping of Live Stock" and the closest attention was given him by his audience. It is to be hoped that we may have more men of Mr. Elliott's type address the U.P.A. in the near future.

We have a letter from Dr. O. T. Griner, renewing his subs. to the Standard. He states he and the family enjoy the weekly visit of the Standard. His boys are in their junior year at the University of California.

Slat's Diary

Friday—well all I got out of show today was slowly trouble, some honey went and put chewing gum on the forehead and a chewing gum bag on the after noon and then I washed the floor. I was the 1st winner of the most gift and just as we were getting ready to go out she said this was a good time to settle up the time matter and so she grabbed the key to the four locks and me by the nap of the neck and halted me back in to the room. And the rest is a closed book to the curious eyes of the Public population.

Saturday—June is a getting lively to smart with her lung here of lately. I don't I would certainly have a little bit today when I seen her over by her house and I up and sat her where she looks me over with a sort of a sneer and then she said, well time to go you burred. Moby she said that I wouldn't get the point. But I did how ever any ways.

Sunday—Well the radio which I have been making is not much a success as I imagined it was going to be. Today I was ready to make a test and had all the gear in to hear it and see if it would cut hear from up in Canada or not. I had a Haystack Hand radio, but when I twisted the buttons and listened with 1 ear and then with the other all we heard was nothing. Then we put some corn and a good time was had at present any ways.

Monday—well we went to a volleyball some tonite and seen some wonderful dancers from Greece and when we got home we sat up what did the day of the close they was wearing and pa replied and sed. Well I don't think they are any danger of any of this outfit seeing for carrying combed weppins.

Tuesday—pa was arguing to women voting and sed they wood all ways choose the best looking candidates. Ma sed. You crazy you did don't that when we went and chosen are husbands. Not all of us crazy ways.

Wednesday—I seen in the paper where there was a going to operate on a boys head to make him behave. But when I prior the way pa and ma operates on me. Painful but is soon over with.

Thursday—Ma says she has got a cutter with speaks French and english and Italian and her husband speaks English and Spanish and German and Portuguese. Pa sed. Well I don't no them but I'll bet on the Lady any ways.

Here and There

The Canadian Pacific coastwise steamer "Ena" has carried from the seven plants operating on Barclay Sound over 12,000 tons of salt herring since the present season opened in November. This year's catch is almost half the season's output, which will approximate 25,000 tons.

The heaviest immigration to Canada experienced during the last ten years is looked for this summer. It is expected that the arrivals are running ahead of those for the same months in 1923; those from European countries being especially large. The enquiries from prospective settlers in the United States are numerous.

Canada exported 6,532 pairs of leather footwear during January, 1924, according to a report of the Bureau of Statistics. Of these 2,179 went to the United States, 2,058 to New Zealand and 2,081 to China and Japan. Bermuda, the Straits Settlements and Newfoundland took the rest. The value was $21,301.

Canadians imported 5,305,587 pounds of tea last month, or about three-fifths of a pound per head of population. The value of last month's tea imports was $1,611,176, and for the twelve months ending January 31, the value of the $2,225,119 pounds imported into Canada was $13,253,642. The bulk of it came from India.

Special trains of immigrants have recently carried lunch counter cars similar to those used on the harvesters' trains last summer. It is understood that the Canadian Pacific have inaugurated this as a feature of all long distance immigrant trains, thus doing away with the necessity of the newcomers providing their own food or using station lunch counters.

The completion of plans for the development of hydro-electric power during the current year will add 90,000 h.p. to the present total of 2,250,000 h.p. already in operation in Canada. This additional power will be used in British Columbia to assist mining and pulp industries in Manitoba to supply rural needs, and in Ontario for gold-mining and other industries. In Quebec the chief developments are in connection with the pulp and paper industries, and farther east, in the Maritimes, for public utility purposes.
